

PRESS RELEASE

Friday 17 October 2008

ITALIAN MARKET – NEWBURY MARKET PLACE

THURSDAY 30TH & FRIDAY 31ST OCTOBER &
SATURDAY 1ST NOVEMBER 2008

Newbury shoppers will be able to immerse themselves in the sights, smells and tastes of Italy later this month, when the Italian Craft & Food Fayre comes to Newbury Market Place.

The red, white and green stalls will be decorated with the Italian Flag and will sell a wide range of authentic Italian treats, including cheeses, olives, cakes, breads, olive oil, Parma ham, cured meats, nuts, dried fruits, nougat, Arancini and ice cream. There will also be a selection of paintings and jewellery on sale.

The market will be open from 9am to 5.30pm on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. This will be in addition to the usual Thursday and Saturday market which will have its traditional array of goods.

Councillor Martha Vickers, Chair of the Market Working Party, said, "Our Italian and French markets are becoming a regular and very welcome feature in the town."

The Italian Craft and Food Fayre is a great opportunity to showcase a wide range of high quality produce and crafts. And because the event is being held in the Market Place shoppers can get all their purchases in one place.

The market operator is Andrea Capelli and both he and all of his traders cordially invite you to join them and enjoy some traditional Italian shopping. At the same time, please feel free to come along and practice your colloquial skills.
