Newbury's Junior Mayor's Charity Gig goes on sale

Newbury Racecourse's Grandstand
Venue for this year's concert

Newbury's Junior Mayor Laurence Parker and Deputy Junior Mayor Jenny Moorcroft are delighted to announce that the tickets for this prestigious event are now on sale.

The Junior Mayor's Charity Gig is due to take place on 23 August 2007 at the new grandstand at Newbury Racecourse whose support is massively appreciated!!! The concert aims to showcase up and coming bands that are local to Newbury, including Paradox, Dayzed, Hansolo, Red Light Rescue, The Habit, The Lock Up and Sleepless and is in aid of the Naomi House Hospice in Scotney Witney that provides palliative care for terminally ill children.

Kick Fm's James O Neill will also be there to comper the whole event and keep things running smoothly.

Wristbands are on sale now at the Town Hall in Newbury for £4 during office hours and will also be on sale during Saturday Surgery on the Town Hall steps between 10am and 12 noon.

Junior Mayor Laurence Parker said, "I urge everyone to come and buy a wristband. It promises to be a fantastic event and all of the Youth Council has worked hard in bringing it to fruition. We have made a decision that there is to be no alcohol on sale, as we felt that the whole idea of the evening was to appreciate the music. Doors open at 5pm on the evening, so just come along and enjoy yourselves!"

For more details on any aspect of the Concert, contact Sue Page or Karen Hutt at the Town Hall on 01635 35486 or email admin@newbury.gov.uk.
