

PRESS RELEASE

Date: 18th April 2007

Saturday Surgery for Newbury's Youngest Councillors

Some of the faces of Newbury's Youth Council

As from 5 th May 2007, members of Newbury Young People's Council will be joining the newly elected Town Councillors on the steps of the Town Hall every Saturday morning between 10am and 12 noon for the Saturday surgery.

This slot has long been a time devoted to the people of Newbury so that they may raise any issues with their local Councillors on a friendly and approachable basis. Now, the youth of Newbury will also be represented by two junior Councillors who feel strongly that young people should also feel that they can raise issues that are affecting them in Newbury.

Familiar faces that you might see are pictured above. If any young people wish to speak to them concerning any issue in Newbury, whether it be lack of entertainment facilities or general information concerning an area that you wish to know about, please come to the Town Hall steps between 10am and noon, where the NYPC will only be to happy to help.
