TOWN COUNCIL
PRESS RELEASE

Date: 24 May 2007

New people, new roles in Newbury Young Peoples Council

Outgoing Junior Mayor Laurence Parker hands over to new Junior Mayor Jenny Moorcroft and Deputy Junior Mayor Kelly Fletcher.

Elections were held at last night's meeting of the Newbury Young Peoples Council for the positions of Junior and Deputy Junior Mayor.

Outgoing Junior Mayor Laurence Parker handed over the reins to Jenny Moorcroft and Kelly Fletcher who were elected Junior and Deputy respectively. It has been a busy year for Laurence who has been familiar face around Newbury in 2007, most notably, the Junior Mayor's Concert in August last year, which raised over £1200 for Naomi House Childrens' Hospice.

Jenny and Kelly also face a similarly busy year with the prospect of a dual venue concert being planned this year, as well as many issues that are being discussed by the Young Peoples Council, including the feasibility of a teenage café in Newbury and being involved with the new Produce Show and Family Fun Day in Victoria Park on August Bank Holiday Monday.

Newbury Young Peoples Council has grown extensively over the last few years and to encourage new members to come along and join in the fun, there will be a Recruitment Evening held at the Town Hall, Newbury on 13th March 2007 at 7.30pm.

Everyone is welcome between the ages of 12-21 to an evening of games and fun and also further information about how to get involved in such a worthwhile organisation. If you are between these ages and would like to get your views heard in Newbury, come along and meet our friendly gang. Jenny and Kelly and the rest of the councillors look forward to seeing you there.
