NEWBURY TOWN COUNCIL PUBLISHES A NEWSLETTER SEEKING RESIDENTS' VIEWS

This week, Newbury Town Council has published a newsletter as part of its commitment to communicate with, consult with and actively involve local residents.

The Newsletter covers a variety of topics in its four pages, but most importantly the Council is seeking residents' views on Victoria Park and the Christmas Lights. Background information is provided in detailed articles within the newsletter, and responses can be sent via e-mail or by post to the freepost address supplied.

The newsletter is being distributed to all residences with RG14 postcodes with the weekly free newspaper, The Advertiser, with gaps in distribution being covered by Councillors. It is also available on-line, at

Other topics covered include a last chance to enter the Newbury in Bloom logo competition, an opportunity to nominate an unsung hero for the town's Civic Award, an initial invitation to the Annual Town Meeting, an update on the Carnival and information on how to contact your local Town Councillor. The Council is also trying to reunite a lost Pink Panther with its owner!
