NEWBURY CARNIVAL

Newbury Town Council and Newbury Young People's Council joined in with the fun of the Newbury Carnival on Saturday evening, entering a float based on the historical theme. One of the highlights was Swampy (Cllr Paul Walter) being chased up and down Northbrook Street by a highways contractor (Cllr Peter Greenhalgh).

Northbrook Street was lined with people who had come to see the carnival.

Money was raised for the Mayor's Benevolent Fund, and the chosen charity of the Newbury Young People's Council.

The Mayor (Cllr Val Bull) was also very involved, judging both the floats in the Carnival and the Battle of the Bands competition.

Well done to Clive Williams and his team for the organisation and the entertainment laid on in Victoria Park – it would be great to see more people joining in the fun by entering a float next year!
