

Children In Need 2006

Teddy Treasure Hunt / Paw Prints

Newbury Town Council does Children In Need 2006

Children In Need 2006 was scheduled for 17 November 2006. Newbury Town Council had decided to take part in this great fundraising event that guarantees all monies will be spent on less fortunate children in the UK only.

The venue was Victoria Park, where a teddy trail treasure hunt had been organized, which consisted of ten clues that would lead around the park, collecting paper Pudseys on the way.

Despite the rather inclement weather, at least 40 very keen, if damp, youngsters and their parents turned up to enjoy the trail, which culminated in the kiosk with a well earned Pudsey shaped biscuit and cup of squash

The following day the youth council of Newbury (NYPC) also joined in the fundraising spirit with their "Paws for Pudsey" hand painting extravaganza, outside the Town Hall. Everybody paid 50p to place a handprint on a canvas, which eventually became a work of art to be displayed outside the Chamber of the Town Hall. This turned out to be an extremely popular event that raised lots of money.

The combined amount raised by both of the Town Council's events was £396.24.
