

PRESS RELEASE

Monday 6th December 2010

FRENCH MARKET – NEWBURY MARKET PLACE

THURSDAY 16TH DECEMBER 2010

A French Market will be trading in the Market Place, Newbury on Thursday 16th December 2010. This will be in addition to our famous Charter Market as usual.

This is a wonderful opportunity to visit our traditional Charter Market and our French Market for some Christmas shopping.

Come and say “Bonjour” to the French Market at this festive time, which will be selling a variety of goods including:

- French Bread and Patisserie
- Pancakes
- Cheese from France
- Provencal soaps
- Leather handbags
- Jewellery
- Saucisson & Pate from Normandy
- Confectionery from Montelimar
- Wooden toys and basketwork

The market operator is Muriel Charles and both she and all of her traders cordially invite you to join them and enjoy some traditional French shopping.

Trading hours will be from 9am – 5pm.

Councillor Ifor Sheldon, Leader of the Council, said, “It’s great that our lovely French Market has decided to visit just before Christmas, a great opportunity for some Christmas shopping. The market is always a huge success with many people coming to the town to discover the French produce and support our lovely Charter Market too.”
